

Sacred Circle

listening ~ empowering ~ loving

Blessings to you, beautiful, Divine women that you are ♥ It is with great joy and enthusiasm that I am offering an opportunity for you to gather together and participate in a Sacred Circle.

We are in a time of great change, where both internal and external experiences are greatly affecting us on many levels. I feel it's time to come together as women ~ to empower one another through listening, sharing and remembering.

I am called to create a sacred space for this to happen ~ where in communion with one another and the Divinity within, we nurture and love ourselves.

We have the opportunity to come together and reflect the magnificence and radiance that each one of us is ~ reminding one another of all that we are and all that we have to bring to this world while supporting us through the times that we forget this and get caught up in our human experiences. I feel that the more we touch into our hearts through sharing, the more apt we are to start living our lives from the inside out ~ from the place of loving and joy that is our core.

This circle doesn't have a structure as I have learned to trust in the guidance I receive based on who is attending and what wants to come forward for each gathering. I love to play in the mystery.

So, come join me if it feels in alignment with you and feel free to pass this on! The circle is open to all.

The Circle will meet on Sunday, October 30th from 1:30pm to 4:00 pm at my home in Los Angeles. Please plan to arrive a few minutes early to get settled in.

We will be sitting in circle on the floor so please bring anything to help make you more comfortable. I do have a few Back-jack chairs already.

If you feel called to participate, please contact me at 310-277-5881 or through email at triplegoddess@sbcglobal.net as the space is limited to 10.

The cost of participating in the circle is $35.

Blessings and light to you all ☺ ♥ Sabrina
